

Canadian Friends of Finland Education Foundation
Presents:

Sibelius

THE VIOLIN CONCERTO
and THE TEMPEST

---

Saturday, Nov. 19, 2011 1-4pm.

---

The seminar will be presented by Rick Phillips, former host and producer of CBC radio's Sound Advice, the weekly guide to Classical music and recordings. Using recordings, Rick will explore the magical world of the Sibelius Violin Concerto and his incidental music to Shakespeare's play, The Tempest.

Although it took years to be fully appreciated, the Sibelius Violin Concerto is now standard concert repertoire-a concerto like no other in its expression, passion and emotion. Sibelius composed music to accompany theatre productions throughout his life, often winning greater accolades than the productions themselves. He had a gift for mood painting and character portraits in music. When the incidental music for Shakespeare's the Tempest was first heard in 1925, a critic claimed: "Shakespeare and Sibelius" the two geniuses have finally found one another!"

Please take this opportunity to add to your musical knowledge and enhance your enjoyment of great music by one of the world's great composers.

---

$25.00 for CFF members, $35.00 for non-members

Women's Art Association of Canada

23 Prince Arthur Avenue, Toronto
(near Avenue Road and Bloor Streets)
Subway: St George Station, Bedford Street exit

For more information or to register:
call Ron Walenius 416-483-5645
or e-mail rwalenius@rogers.com

refreshments will be served

Canadian Friends of Finland Education Foundation
Presents:

Sibelius

THE VIOLIN CONCERTO
and THE TEMPEST

---

Saturday, Nov. 19, 2011 1-4pm.

---

The seminar will be presented by Rick Phillips, former host and producer of CBC radio's Sound Advice, the weekly guide to Classical music and recordings. Using recordings, Rick will explore the magical world of the Sibelius Violin Concerto and his incidental music to Shakespeare's play, The Tempest.

Although it took years to be fully appreciated, the Sibelius Violin Concerto is now standard concert repertoire-a concerto like no other in its expression, passion and emotion. Sibelius composed music to accompany theatre productions throughout his life, often winning greater accolades than the productions themselves. He had a gift for mood painting and character portraits in music. When the incidental music for Shakespeare's the Tempest was first heard in 1925, a critic claimed: "Shakespeare and Sibelius" the two geniuses have finally found one another!"

Please take this opportunity to add to your musical knowledge and enhance your enjoyment of great music by one of the world's great composers.

---

$25.00 for CFF members, $35.00 for non-members

Women's Art Association of Canada

23 Prince Arthur Avenue, Toronto
(near Avenue Road and Bloor Streets)
Subway: St George Station, Bedford Street exit

For more information or to register:
call Ron Walenius 416-483-5645
or e-mail rwalenius@rogers.com

refreshments will be served

Canadian Friends of Finland Education Foundation
Presents:

Sibelius

THE VIOLIN CONCERTO
and THE TEMPEST

---

Saturday, Nov. 19, 2011 1-4pm.

---

The seminar will be presented by Rick Phillips, former host and producer of CBC radio's Sound Advice, the weekly guide to Classical music and recordings. Using recordings, Rick will explore the magical world of the Sibelius Violin Concerto and his incidental music to Shakespeare's play, The Tempest.

Although it took years to be fully appreciated, the Sibelius Violin Concerto is now standard concert repertoire-a concerto like no other in its expression, passion and emotion. Sibelius composed music to accompany theatre productions throughout his life, often winning greater accolades than the productions themselves. He had a gift for mood painting and character portraits in music. When the incidental music for Shakespeare's the Tempest was first heard in 1925, a critic claimed: "Shakespeare and Sibelius" the two geniuses have finally found one another!"

Please take this opportunity to add to your musical knowledge and enhance your enjoyment of great music by one of the world's great composers.

---

$25.00 for CFF members, $35.00 for non-members

Women's Art Association of Canada

23 Prince Arthur Avenue, Toronto
(near Avenue Road and Bloor Streets)
Subway: St George Station, Bedford Street exit

For more information or to register:
call Ron Walenius 416-483-5645
or e-mail rwalenius@rogers.com

refreshments will be served